

Seminar Opportunities for Leading Practitioners

BrightHaven offers seminar participants a unique and exceptional experience among our animal family in a tranquil and prestigious setting in Sonoma County's countryside. We invite Holistic and Animal Health Practitioners to consider bringing your seminar to BrightHaven through one of our following opportunities, designed to benefit both BrightHaven and our partnering practitioner.

Evening Classes

Held for one selected weekday evening 6:30-8:30 PM
Customary Charge per person $50-$75

Includes:

A formal 10 minute introduction to BrightHaven
Snacks and refreshments

Weekend Afternoon Seminars

Held Saturday from 12noon-4pm
Customary Charge per person $125-$200

Includes:

A formal 10 minute introduction to BrightHaven
Hosted break with snacks and refreshments
Visits with animal residents

Weekend 2-day seminars

Held Saturday and Sunday 11am-4pm
Customary Charge per person $230-$1000

Includes:

A formal 15-20 minute introduction
Hosted Afternoon Breaks with snacks and refreshments
Interaction with animal residents

Three Day Conference

Held Friday, Saturday and Sunday 11am-4pm

Includes:

A formal 15-20 minute introduction
BrightHaven Tour options
Hosted Afternoon Breaks with refreshments and snacks
Catering Options

BrightHaven accepts a 40-50% tax deductible donation from the proceeds of all seminars. To inquire please contact Jessica@BrightHaven.org and send a brief outline of the seminar material you would like to present. We look forward to this collaboration in our mission in education outreach to the greater community to "Help People, Help Animals."

BrightHaven, PO Box 1743, Sebastopol, CA95473. www.brighthaven.org (707) 578-4800